TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The last will be FIRST,
and the first will be LAST.

MATTHEW 20:16

This weekend's Gospel presents us with the parable of the workers in the vineyard. On the surface, the parable appears to be an offense to common sense. Those who work a longer day ought to be paid more than those who work just an hour or two. When viewed in this way, the landowner seems unfair. That is because we are reading into the parable our own preconceived notions of how fairness and equality should be quantified.

A close read shows us that the landowner paid on the terms that were negotiated. The landowner, it seems, has acted completely justly. The parable goes beyond that, however, and we come to see that the landowner is not simply just, he is exceptionally just. He is radically just. He has given those who labored in the field for a full day their due pay. But he has also given a full-day's wage to those who worked only a single hour. No one is cheated, but a few receive abundantly from the landowner just as we receive from God more than what is merely justifiable or due. God, like the landowner, is radically just and abundantly generous. The workers who complain are made to look foolish as they lament the fact that the landowner has made all workers equal. Indeed, what more could one ask for than to be treated as an equal at work or anywhere else?

I remember in my first parish as a young priest I received a call to visit someone who was near death. The man had been married to a Catholic (although now a widower) and had raised his children Catholic. That said, he had never been particularly religious. He now wanted to become a Catholic. I was feeling good when I returned to the rectory, having received this man into the Church. The housekeeper told me she thought that was unfair. She was a Catholic her whole life and tried her best to be a good Catholic. This guy was going to slip in at the end. She felt like a sucker. I am reminded of that conversation every time I read this Gospel.

The parable reminds us that although God owes us nothing, he offers abundantly and equally. We are occasionally tempted to think that our own actions deserve more reward, more of God's abundant mercy, than the actions of others. But God's generosity cannot be quantified or partitioned into different amounts for different people. When we think that way, we are trying to relate to God on our terms, rather than to accept God's radically different ways.

Oremus pro invicem
(Let us pray for one another)

We warmly welcome
Father Andrew Heiman to weekend ministry at St. Hilary Parish!

It is with a humble and grateful heart that I get to write this letter of introduction to the entire parish of St. Hilary Church. My name is Fr. Andrew Heiman. When I was ordained on May 28, 2005, as a priest for the diocese of Wichita, Kansas, I never thought that I would have the opportunity to serve in a seminary in Philadelphia and help at a parish in the Archdiocese. Yet, I should not be surprised that God continues to pour out His abundant blessings upon me as He has done throughout my life. I now look forward to walking with all of you in our journey to Heaven, the path of becoming saints. You will see me at one of the masses on weekends here at St. Hilary - please stop and introduce yourself. Please pray for me and I will continue to pray for all of you.

Hospitality Sunday on Oct. 11 after 8:30am & 10:30am Masses in the Parish Center - all are welcome!

Forty Hours at St. Hilary Church on October 18th, 19th, and 20th at 7pm Speaker: Rev. Joshua Vargas, C.O.

Mass of Remembrance is on Saturday, Oct. 31 at 5pm for those who had funerals at St. Hilary Church since last November. The deceased's loved ones are invited to this special Memorial Mass, along with our St. Hilary parishioners.

Dear St. Hilary Parishioners,

As the fall season draws near, I look back on these summer days as well as all my days with you at St. Hilary's. Once again, I am deeply grateful for all your kindnesses and support over the years. I believe my personal "thank you's" have been completed - but there were some cards and gifts sent to me in which I could not decipher the names. To all of them, I hope they are able to read this note and know how grateful I am to them.

It has only been a couple months since departing from St. Hilary's, but I miss you all very much. To be part of your families in various circumstances were such wonderful experiences and graces to me.

The Scripture reminds us again, "The favors of the Lord are not exhausted; they are renewed each morning." Your kind favors will sustain me with many happy memories in the years ahead. All of you have a special place and remembrance in my mind and heart.

God's grace and peace,
Father Murray

St. Hilary of Poitiers Catholic School has been recognized by the Arch. of Phila. as a School of Distinction and earning awards for Academic Growth and Exceeding Potential. This great achievement is a testament to the entire St. Hilary School Community. Thank you to our entire faculty for their faith-filled commitment, dedication, and inspiring leadership & enthusiasm in the classroom. We are proud of our SHS students for their perseverance and passion for learning. Their SHS Spirit is contagious. Thank you to the SHS parents and families for their support and commitment of our students & teachers. Together in faith & excellence, the St. Hilary School Community continues to shine bright.

Congratulations to everyone for this honor!

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) St. Hilary of Poitiers Parish

OCIA, Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is the process by which people who are interested in learning about the Catholic Faith can attend classes and have the opportunity to become members of the Catholic Church.

OCIA is for adults who:

- Are interested in learning about the Catholic Faith
- Have never been baptized
- Have been baptized in another Christian faith and are interested in the Catholic faith
- Are baptized Catholics who have not yet received the Sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation
- Are married to a Catholic and attend Mass, and would like to take the next steps to become a member of the Catholic Church

OCIA is a spiritual formation process beginning in October and ending with initiation in the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. Please contact Msgr. Fairbanks at the Rectory if you or anyone you know might be interested.

Lectors Needed

We are seeking a few new volunteers to be Weekend Mass Lectors. If you are willing to serve in this ministry, please contact Msgr. Fairbanks at the Rectory. We will provide training. Thank you for considering serving the Lord and your Parish!

LADIES AUXILIARY OF MARY

Please join us on Thursday, Sept. 24 at 7pm in the Parish Center. An NEW & EXCITING chapter begins for the Ladies Auxiliary. Come see what it's all about! This is a group of practicing Catholic women, 18 years of age and older. All that is required is a love of God and desire to provide community service on a mission. Our main function is to organize, provide services to our parish communities, and conduct charitable events. We are a fun group who enjoy each other's company. It is about faith, friendship, and service. Join us! Contact Stacey with questions at 215-896-3424.

OCTOBER COUNT FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE

Each year (not including 2020 & 2021) each parish in the Archdiocese is required to submit an "October Count" ~ so during each weekend mass during the entire month of October, each person is counted. There are 4 weekends in October this year, so at the end of the month, the number of people attending St. Hilary Church each week will be determined by averaging out the numbers for the whole month. It's important to always attend Church especially for our spiritual well-being, and in the month of October, it is very much appreciated if you attend your home parish. Thank you!

PERMANENT DIACONATE DISCERNMENT DAY

"Called to Serve as Christ the Servant"

Spend a day in prayer, conversation, and discernment with permanent deacons, their wives, and members of the Clergy Office and the Diaconal Formation Team.

What to expect...

The day includes Mass in the Immaculate Conception Chapel, discernment and formation sessions, breakout sessions for men and wives, breakfast, lunch, fellowship, and a final Q&A for those exploring a possible call to the Permanent Diaconate.

OPEN TO MEN 30-55 YEARS OF AGE.

Wives are strongly encouraged to attend.

SEVEN VIRTUES FOR SUCCESSFUL CATHOLICS

Practicing virtues - habitual and firm dispositions to do good - leads to long-lasting interior freedom, joy, and peace. The following 7 virtues, with God's grace, can help you do that:

- * Faith... enables our belief in God and all that He has revealed through Scripture, Tradition, and the teachings of the Church; reciting the Creed at Mass is an act of faith
- * Hope... is the desire for heaven and trust in God's promises to us; trusting in the Lord, even in trials and asking for forgiveness, are acts of hope
- * Charity... enables us to love God above all things and our neighbors as ourselves; true love is when we wish and act for the authentic good of others
- * Prudence... is the virtue that helps us to discern our true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means of achieving it
- * Justice... helps us respect others' rights and give to each his due; we are made in His image so we owe each other respect
- * Fortitude... strengthens us to follow Christ in the world, even if it is unpopular and uncomfortable
- * Temperance... properly orders our desire for pleasure, so that we appreciate earthly goods in moderation and value heavenly good most; observing the one-hour fast from food before receiving the Eucharist is an example
