THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men

Matthew 4:19

PASTOR'S CORNER

"The people who sit in darkness have seen a great light." Matthew 4:12-23

St. Matthew today is not just giving us a geography lesson reporting the travels of Jesus. He mentions the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali and he recalls the spiritual collapse of a nation. What led to their catastrophe was a spiritual and moral weakening of the people. Religion and morality had become divorced from public policy. The weak and the poor could find no justice in the judicial system. The darkness of gloom and despair covered the nation.

In the words of St. John Paul II, we need always be aware of the "eclipse of the sense of God and man." When we black out the light of God's revealed truths, we lose a sense of our dignity and transcendence. Human life is less respected; no longer seen as a gift. We begin to subjugate life to our own whims and be manipulated as we please. Shadows of death are all around us...in a culture that promotes abortions, that turns a blind eye to child abuse, human trafficking, the proliferation of pornography, and the promotion of euthanasia. In Europe and now here in America, a contraceptive culture is leading to a "demographic winter." Low birth rates & high death rates will have catastrophic results. The aging population will have little or no one to care for them, especially in the area of human service.

As He did thousands of years ago, Jesus comes to our own land of Zebulun and Naphtali. He is the light that comes to overcome the darkness of our times. By becoming one of us and one with us, Jesus gives human life its greatest affirmation - all life must be cherished from conception to natural death. May His light continue to shine through us by:

"feeding the hungry, visiting the sick, caring for the stranger, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked."

His formula for living will overcome all the shadows of human existence.

God Bless,
Father Murray

We have recently entered
Ordinary Time in our Liturgical Year...

What Ordinary Time Means in the Catholic Church

Because the term “ordinary” in English most often means something that’s not special or distinctive, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to parts of the calendar of the Catholic Church that are unimportant. Even though the season of Ordinary Time makes up most of the liturgical year in the Catholic Church, the fact that Ordinary Time refers to those periods that fall outside of the major liturgical seasons reinforces this impression. Yet, this Ordinary Time is far from unimportant or uninteresting.

Why is Ordinary Time Called Ordinary?

Ordinary Time is called “ordinary” not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word “ordinalis” which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word “ordo” from which we get the English word “Order.” Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time, in fact, represent the ordered life of the Church, the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ. It’s appropriate, therefore, that the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time always features either John the Baptist’s acknowledgement of Christ as the Lamb of God or Christ’s first miracle ~ the transformation of water into wine at the wedding at Cana. Thus for Catholics, Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives.

There's nothing “ordinary” about that!

BACK TO THE BASICS

Resolutions, it seems, are made to be broken. Some folks poke fun at this reality by proposing New Year's vows that are, shall we say, attainable.

Here are a few from social media:

- * Wave to fellow motorists at stoplights.
- * Sign up for a marathon. Don't run it.
- * Stop procrastinating - tomorrow.
- * Get lost without any help from Siri.
- * Unfriend everyone on Facebook who posts their workout regimen.

The concept of a fresh start, however, can be serious business. The exiled people of Judah desperately needed one. Just over two decades into their seventy-year captivity, God brought encouragement to them through the prophet Ezekiel, promising, "I will now restore the fortunes of Jacob." (Ezek. 39:25)

But the nation first needed to return to the basics - the instructions God had given to Moses eight hundred years earlier. This included observing a feast at the new year. For the ancient Jewish people, that began in early spring. A major purpose of their festivals was to remind them of God's character and His expectations. He told their leaders, "Give up your violence and oppression and do what is just and right" and he insisted on honesty. (Ez. 45:9-10)

The lesson applies to us, too. Our faith must be put into practice or it's worthless (James 2:17). In this new year, as God provides what we need, may we live out our faith by returning to the basics: "Love the Lord your God." and "Love your neighbor as yourself." (Matthew 22:37-39)

Celebrating the Feast of St. Hilary of Poitiers

Archbishop Nelson J. Pérez has proposed a bold vision for the future of the Catholic Church of Philadelphia in his pastoral letter, Trust and Hope (more information can be found at TrustandHope.org). The Catholic Church of Philadelphia is not defined by its structures, but by its greatest treasure – it's people. To plan its future, the Archdiocese is working with the Steier Group, a national Catholic fundraising firm, to conduct a campaign planning study. Please accept the invitation to share your feedback on the Church of Philadelphia's proposed plans. This is our moment to renew the Catholic Church of Philadelphia – to strengthen parishes, form missionary disciples, and bring Christ to a world in need. YOUR VOICE MATTERS! Impact our future by taking our survey at: <https://forms.office.com/r/9fc95U5B4> or scan the QR code.

What is a Missionary Hub?

The Catholic Church of Philadelphia is launching Missionary Hubs across each of our five local counties. These hubs are designed to create a supportive network for missionary life, connection, and support, renewing parishes, schools, and communities, and engaging people across every stage of their faith journey. Five pilot hubs have already launched, and we plan to plant 50 Missionary Hubs over the next 10 years. Please share your thoughts by participating in the planning study survey. Click this post to share your feedback.
