Deacon's Corner

"You should have had mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you."
Matthew 18:33

What do we do when we find that we can't forgive someone? What do we do to get rid of the emotional block that often keeps us from forgiving another. Are we really unable to forgive someone or are we really unable to change our own character flaws in ourselves?

Most times we are able to overlook the faults of the people we love especially family. We may not agree with things they do or say but we can move past those things by simply accepting them for who they are because of the underlying fact that we love them no matter what. But when it comes to others whom we do not have the same emotional attachment it appears to be a great deal more difficult.

In order to move past these feelings of anger and distrust and be able to forgive others we must make an effort to see them as Jesus sees them; not as terrible people, but as frightened, hurt children of his Father who have lost their way. We should always keep in mind the number of times we have hurt Jesus and how He is always willing to look past our faults and welcome us home with Him.

Today's readings invite us to ask ourselves about our relationships with others. If they aren't what they should be, then we should take the initiative to change them. And if we open our heart to do this, it will lead to a whole new life for us and for the one we forgive.

God bless,
Deacon John

A Perfect Prayer to Say After Receiving the Eucharist.

I thank you with all my heart, O loving Jesus, for having come to me and allowed me to assist at the holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and to offer it in union with you by receiving your Sacred body and Most Precious Blood. Grant that I may not forget these graces; let me remember during this day that I have stood beneath your cross, witnessed the renewal of your sacrifice, and partaken of the heavenly banquet. May I spend this day for you alone, my Jesus, and perform all my work in union with you according to your words: he who abides in me, and I in him, he bears much fruit." Amen

St. John Chrysostom

Prayer is a treasure undiminished, a mine never exhausted, a sky unobstructed by clouds, a heaven unruffled by storm. Prayed is the anchor of those tossed on the sea, the treasure of the poor, the cure of diseases, the safeguard of health.

IMPOTANT PARISH NEWS!

St. Hilary of Poitiers Parish

We will continue our Summer Mass Schedule through the month of September at which time we will consider our options.

5:00pm Saturday Vigil, Sunday 9:00am & 11:00am

Saint Hilary of Poitiers' Story

This staunch defender of the divinity of Christ was a gentle and courteous man, devoted to writing some of the greatest theology on the Trinity, and was like his Master in being labeled a “disturber of the peace.” In a very troubled period in the Church, his holiness was lived out in both scholarship and controversy. He was bishop of Poitiers in France.

Raised a pagan, he was converted to Christianity when he met his God of nature in the Scriptures. His wife was still living when he was chosen, against his will, to be the bishop of Poitiers in France. He was soon taken up with battling what became the scourge of the fourth century, Arianism, which denied the divinity of Christ.

The heresy spread rapidly. Saint Jerome said “The world groaned and marveled to find that it was Arian.” When Emperor Constantius ordered all the bishops of the West to sign a condemnation of Athanasius, the great defender of the faith in the East, Hilary refused and was banished from France to far off Phrygia. Eventually he was called the “Athanasius of the West.”

While writing in exile, he was invited by some semi-Arians (hoping for reconciliation) to a council the emperor called to counteract the Council of Nicea. But Hilary predictably defended the Church, and when he sought public debate with the heretical bishop who had exiled him, the Arians, dreading the meeting and its outcome, pleaded with the emperor to send this troublemaker back home. Hilary was welcomed by his people.

Reflection

Christ said his coming would bring not peace but a sword (see Matthew 10:34). The Gospels offer no support for us if we fantasize about a sunlit holiness that knows no problems. Christ did not escape at the last moment, though he did live happily ever after—after a life of controversy, problems, pain and frustration. Hilary, like all saints, simply had more of the same.

For Catholics a valid sacramental marriage is before a Priest and two witnesses in what is called the Form of Marriage. If you have been married by a Justice of the Peace or in a Civil Marriage and wish to have your marriage blessed by the Church and be able to return to the sacraments, most especially, the Sacrament of the Eucharist, please call the rectory at 215-884-3252

The Sacrament of Marriage

"The matrimonial covenant, by which a man and a woman established between themselves a partnership of the whole of life, is by its nature ordered toward the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring; this covenant between baptized persons has been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a sacrament." (Catechism of the Catholic Church pg.400)

DO YOU KNOW YOUR TRIBUNAL?

The Tribunal is available to help people who have experienced divorce and who may wish to remarry in the Catholic Church.

When a divorce occurs, the Catholic Church always seeks to balance two realities. On one hand the durable bond of marriage. This is God's law. On the other hand, the Church is concerned about the spiritual welfare of the people involved. Even though a Catholic wedding was celebrated, perhaps there was some deficiency in the consent of the parties involved regarding intentions, understanding or ability? The annulment procedure addresses these circumstances.

If you are divorced and want to marry in the Church or remarried outside the Catholic Church, please telephone the Tribunal Office at 222 North 17th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103 (215) 587-3750
