"Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood live in me and I live in them." John 6:56

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, "Corpus Christi." As Catholics we are asked to believe some pretty incredible things about what takes place on our altars daily, things we will never be able to fully understand. And that's ok. We shouldn't shy away from our confusion or doubts or wonders or any other kind of disconnect we may be having in our minds. It's precisely in the wondering that we can come to a deeper understanding, a deep love and appreciation, a deeper faith. And in a very real sense there will always be a part of Eucharist that remains a mystery, remains something that we may struggle to make sense of. But that part need not be the biggest part, for there are ways for this sacred meal to make a little more sense, become a little more real and meaningful, be the beautiful encounter with God it is meant to be. So how will this ever make more sense? Well it makes more sense if we believe that our God loves us unconditionally, completely, relentlessly. It makes more sense if we believe that our God doesn't want to remain a part from us, rather He wants to be close to us, dwell in us. It make more sense if we believe in the incarnation and that God comes to us in concrete tangible ways, through the things of this world. It make even more sense if we realize that we need God more than we need any other thing in this world and that He is what we hunger for in our lives.

God bless,
Deacon John

*Month of Prayer for the Healing and Peace for the City of Philadelphia and beyond Archbishop Nelson Perez exhorts all the clergy and faithful throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to respond to the recent event of unrest in our City and throughout the United States with intentional prayer for healing and peace.
In his statement of prayerful condolences for the unnecessary death of George Flood, the Archbishop further said:*

Racial hatred has no place in our world, including here in the United States, or in the hearts of people. Every life is a precious gift from God. Racism is a mortal sin and an attack on that gift. All of us share a responsibility to bring an end to this evil and to do so in a way that seek justice and peace. The perpetual cycle of pain and anguish must end.

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to you will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen

Burial & Cremation

Pope Francis, through the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, has issued instructions regarding the burial of the deceased especially those who choose cremation. This instruction should help to maintain and recognize the human body as a living temple of God's presence. Proper respect for the deceased and their remains must always be upheld.

Copies on the guidelines are available at the rectory

For Catholics a valid sacramental marriage is before a Priest and two witnesses in what is called the Form of Marriage. If you have been married by a Justice of the Peace or in a Civil Marriage and wish to have your marriage blessed by the Church and be able to return to the sacraments, most especially, the Sacrament of the Eucharist, please call the rectory at 215-884-3252

DO YOU KNOW YOUR TRIBUNAL?

The Tribunal is available to help people who have experienced divorce and who may wish to remarry in the Catholic Church.

When a divorce occurs, the Catholic Church always seeks to balance two realities. On one hand the durable bond of marriage. This is God's law. On the other hand, the Church is concerned about the spiritual welfare of the people involved. Even though a Catholic wedding was celebrated, perhaps there was some deficiency in the consent of the parties involved regarding intentions, understanding or ability? The annulment procedure addresses these circumstances.

If you are divorced and want to marry in the Church or remarried outside the Catholic Church, please telephone the Tribunal Office at 222 North 17th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103 (215) 587-3750
