FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PASTOR'S CORNER

"Put out into deep water..."

Luke 5:1-11

The Gospel presents us with the greatest fishing story ever told. The disciples, despite "being at it all night long," catch nothing - nothing but frustration. Yet their wonder and surprise come after listening and following Jesus' instruction and they find what they are looking for. What they find is just simply overwhelming...their boats nearly sank at the large catch of fish.

The word of Jesus Christ always leads to surprising and unexpected results. Jesus is not just giving us fishing lessons. There is a spiritual solution to many of our problems. At times, we are overwhelmed by our shortcomings. Despite "being at it all day and night" we can't find what we need.

Like Peter, Jesus is telling us to put out to deeper waters. Deepen our faith and our trust in Him. Peter and the disciples needed Jesus' wisdom to find what they needed. We need His guidance and wisdom as well. The answers and solutions are out there; the strength to sustain us in our challenges is out there. Turn to the Lord and adopt His point of view and life will take on new and exciting possibilities. We, too, like the disciples, will discover that following the Lord's guidance will lead to surprising and unexpected results.

God Bless,
Father Murray

WHAT IS A JUBILEE YEAR?

It is a special period of celebration and grace that takes place every 25 years, offering all the faithful a unique opportunity for spiritual renewal and a closer relationship with God. Pope Francis has announced the year 2025 as a special Jubilee Year. As Pilgrims of Hope, it is a time for a genuine encounter with the Lord, especially in the sacrament of the Eucharist. Further information and various activities surrounding this Jubilee Year will be forthcoming.

JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise forever. Amen.

Archbishop Perez published a Pastoral Letter on Sunday, January 5, 2025. This letter outlines his hopes for the Church of Philadelphia over the coming years. To watch the video and read the Letter from the Archbishop, please go to this link: <https://trustandhope.org>, or you can use the QR Code seen here. There are Archdiocesan Consultation Sessions to learn even more. We will have local information sessions to further address any questions, and we will share those dates as soon as they are scheduled.

"I invite all Christians, everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ, or at least an openness to letting Him encounter them...no one should think that this invitation is not meant for him or her, since 'no one is excluded from the joy brought by the Lord'... Whenever we take a step towards Jesus, we come to realize that He is already there, waiting for us with open arms."

"The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community."

ST. VALENTINE'S STORY

Let me introduce myself; my name is Valentine. I lived in Rome during the third century. That was long, long ago. At that time, Rome was ruled by an emperor named Claudius. I didn't like Emperor Claudius, and I wasn't the only one! A whole lot of people shared my feelings.

Claudius wanted to have a big army. He expected men to volunteer to join. Many men just did not want to fight in wars. They did not want to leave their wives and families. As you might have guessed, not many men signed up. This made Claudius furious. So what happened? He had a crazy idea. He thought if men were not married, then they would not mind joining the army. So, Claudius decided not to allow any more marriages. Young people thought that this new rule was cruel. I thought it was preposterous! I certainly wasn't going to support that law. Did I mention I was a priest? One of my favorite works as a priest was to marry couples. Even after Emperor Claudius passed his law, I kept on performing marriage ceremonies - secretly, of course. It was really quite exciting. Imagine a small candlelit room with only the bride and groom and myself. We would whisper the words of the ceremony, listening all the while for the steps of the soldiers.

One night we did hear footsteps. It was scary! Thank goodness the couple I was marrying escaped in time. I was caught, however. I was thrown in jail and told that my punishment was death. I tried to stay cheerful. And do you know what? Wonderful things happened. Many young people came to the jail to visit me. They threw flowers and notes up to my window. They wanted me to know that they, too, believed in love. One young woman was the prison guard's daughter. Her father allowed her to visit me in the cell. Sometimes we would sit and talk for hours. She helped me to keep my spirits up. She agreed that I did the right thing by ignoring the Emperor and going ahead with the secret marriages. On the day I was to die, I left my friend a little note, thanking her for her friendship and loyalty. I signed it, "Love from your Valentine."

I do believe this note started the custom of exchanging love messages on Valentines Day. It was written on the day that I died, which was February 14, 269 A.D.

Updated St. Hilary 55+ Spirit Club News:

THANK YOU for your prayerful and financial support for the Annual Collection for the Care of Aging & Infirm Priests of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. This initiative provides a special opportunity to express gratitude for the many blessings received through the ministry of priests. In retirement, they continue to be a great source of support for our local church through their prayers, the celebration of Holy Mass, and their wise counsel. Many of the retired priests reside at Villa Saint Joseph in Darby and Regina Coeli in Warminster, where they continue to intercede for the people of God whom they served faithfully for many years.
