SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.

John 1:29

PASTOR'S CORNER

"Behold the Lamb of God"

In the darkness of human events, St. John the Baptist tells us a new light is rising. The child Jesus has grown to manhood; He is on a rescue mission to rescue all of us from self-doubt, as well as powers and circumstances that make us feel less human. This mission is summed up in the words he describes to Jesus, the Lamb of God. He is reaching back to sacred tradition when Moses led Israel out of slavery. A lamb was sacrificed and its blood sprinkled on the doors of their houses. Seeing the blood, The Angel of death passed over those houses and they were saved.

Jesus is God's lamb, the spotless perfect victim, the perfect sacrifice that achieved what no animal sacrifice could accomplish. Jesus' blood is poured out on the wood of the Cross. By His blood, we pass from death to life. Forces of death are seen everywhere today...the sin of abortion, racism, pornography, and human trafficking. All of those powers devalue human life. From these destructive forces, Jesus comes to rescue us. In our Communion today with the Lord, He empowers us to pass over these threats. The psalmist cries out, "I have waited for the Lord and He heard my cry."

The waiting is over, and the Lord is near. Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Happy indeed are we who are called to His supper.

God Bless,
Father Murray

We have just entered Ordinary Time in our Liturgical Year...

What Ordinary Time Means in the Catholic Church

Because the term “ordinary” in English most often means something that’s not special or distinctive, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to parts of the calendar of the Catholic Church that are unimportant. Even though the season of Ordinary Time makes up most of the liturgical year in the Catholic Church, the fact that Ordinary Time refers to those periods that fall outside of the major liturgical seasons reinforces this impression. Yet, this Ordinary Time is far from unimportant or uninteresting.

Why is Ordinary Time Called Ordinary?

Ordinary Time is called “ordinary” not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word “ordinalis” which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word “ordo” from which we get the English word “Order.” Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time, in fact, represent the ordered life of the Church, the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ. It’s appropriate, therefore, that the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time always features either John the Baptist’s acknowledgement of Christ as the Lamb of God or Christ’s first miracle ~ the transformation of water into wine at the wedding at Cana. Thus for Catholics, Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives.

There's nothing “ordinary” about that!

DRINKING FROM MY SAUCER
by John Paul Moore

I've never made a fortune
and it's probably too late now.
But I don't worry about that much,
I'm happy anyhow.

And as I go along life's way,
I'm reaping better than I sowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.

I don't have a lot of riches,
and sometimes the going's tough.
But I've got loved ones around me,
and that makes me rich enough.

I thank God for his blessings,
and the mercies He's bestowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.

I remember times when things went wrong,
my faith wore somewhat thin.
But all at once the dark clouds broke,
and the sun peeped through again.

So God, help me not to gripe about the tough rows that I've hoed.
I'm drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.

If God gives me strength and courage,
when the way grows steep and rough,
I'll not ask for other blessings,
I'm already blessed enough.

And may I never be too busy,
to help others bear their loads.
Then I'll keep drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.

EVERY LIFE IS WORTH LIVING

Heavenly Father, thank you for the precious gift of life. Help us to cherish and protect this gift, even in the midst of fear, pain, and suffering. Give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living. Grant us the humility to accept help when we are in need, and teach us to be merciful to all. Through our words and actions, may others encounter the outstretched hands of Your mercy. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

At every stage and in every circumstance, we are held in existence by God's love. The presence of an illness, disability, or other challenging situation never diminishes the value of a human life. God does not call us to perfection of appearance or abilities, but to perfection in love. Christ invites us to embrace our own lives and the lives of others as true gifts.

Abortion tragically rejects the truth that every life is a good and perfect gift, deserving protection. This violent practice ends the life of a human being at its very beginning and horribly wounds all of those involved. But Christ came that we "might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10), taking on human flesh for the sake of our redemption. May our culture experience the power of God's transforming love, that all eyes may be opened to the very incredible beauty of every human life.

PRAYER FOR THE RETURN OF NON-PRACTICING CATHOLICS

O Good Shepherd, You never cease to seek out the lost, to call home the strays, comfort the frightened, and to bind up the wounded. I ask you to bring all our fallen brothers and sisters back to the practice of Faith, and to remove all obstacles that prevent them from receiving your abundant mercy, which flows sacramentally through the heart of the Church. Make Your power known to them today in every situation.

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of God, their Guardian Angels, their Patron Saints, and the ever-prayerful St. Monica, may you pardon their sins and unshackle them from whatever hinders their freedom to come Home. For You, O Good Shepherd, have loved us to the end and offered yourself to the Father for the salvation of all. Amen.
